New Summer Seasonal Non-Stop Flight Announced by American Airlines – Philadelphia PHL to TVC

(Traverse City, Michigan) – Cherry Capital Airport is pleased to announce that American Airlines is expanding its seasonal summer schedule by offering an additional non-stop flight; Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) to and from TVC. TVC Airport officials and American Airlines are working together to make it easier for customers traveling from the eastern part of the United States to the Traverse City Region. The new non-stop route will offer daily service beginning Thursday, June 3rd. Flights are currently available on www.AA.com. The aircraft used for the new service route is an Embraer E175s seating 76 passengers.

In addition to the new Philadelphia service route, American Airlines also offers customers convenient non-stop daily service Traverse City (TVC) year-round from Chicago O'Hare (ORD) and daily seasonal service from Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW) beginning Thursday, May 6th. Weekend service to New York LaGuardia (LGA), Washington DC (DCA), and Charelotte (CLT) will all begin on Saturday, June 5th.

“American Airline offers another great opportunity by adding Philadelphia (PHL) to our line-up. American planned this launch last year but COVID delayed the launch until 2021. This is a great sign for industry as flying continues to be the safest way to travel,” stated Kevin Klein, TVC Airport Director.
